

were some things
ncipally it shot the
against the evening
end of the nine and
oward, the 10th tee,
g a player who had a barrage from the y of inherent trou-

f the eighth, which nots into Tillamook
g the direction of
will help materially.
th has, too much of
to parking may be antage. The desert
old race track are es.

e is too short to ge enough to shift
hile we have never tec problem, we e room to try.

ought to take coun-
nd reform it alto-
g with the location
as the proper key
out. I am sending and will have an nt, criticism, con-

fr. Keyser that the reproduced in The golfers of Portland
earful.

STLING

HT 8:30

FORIUM

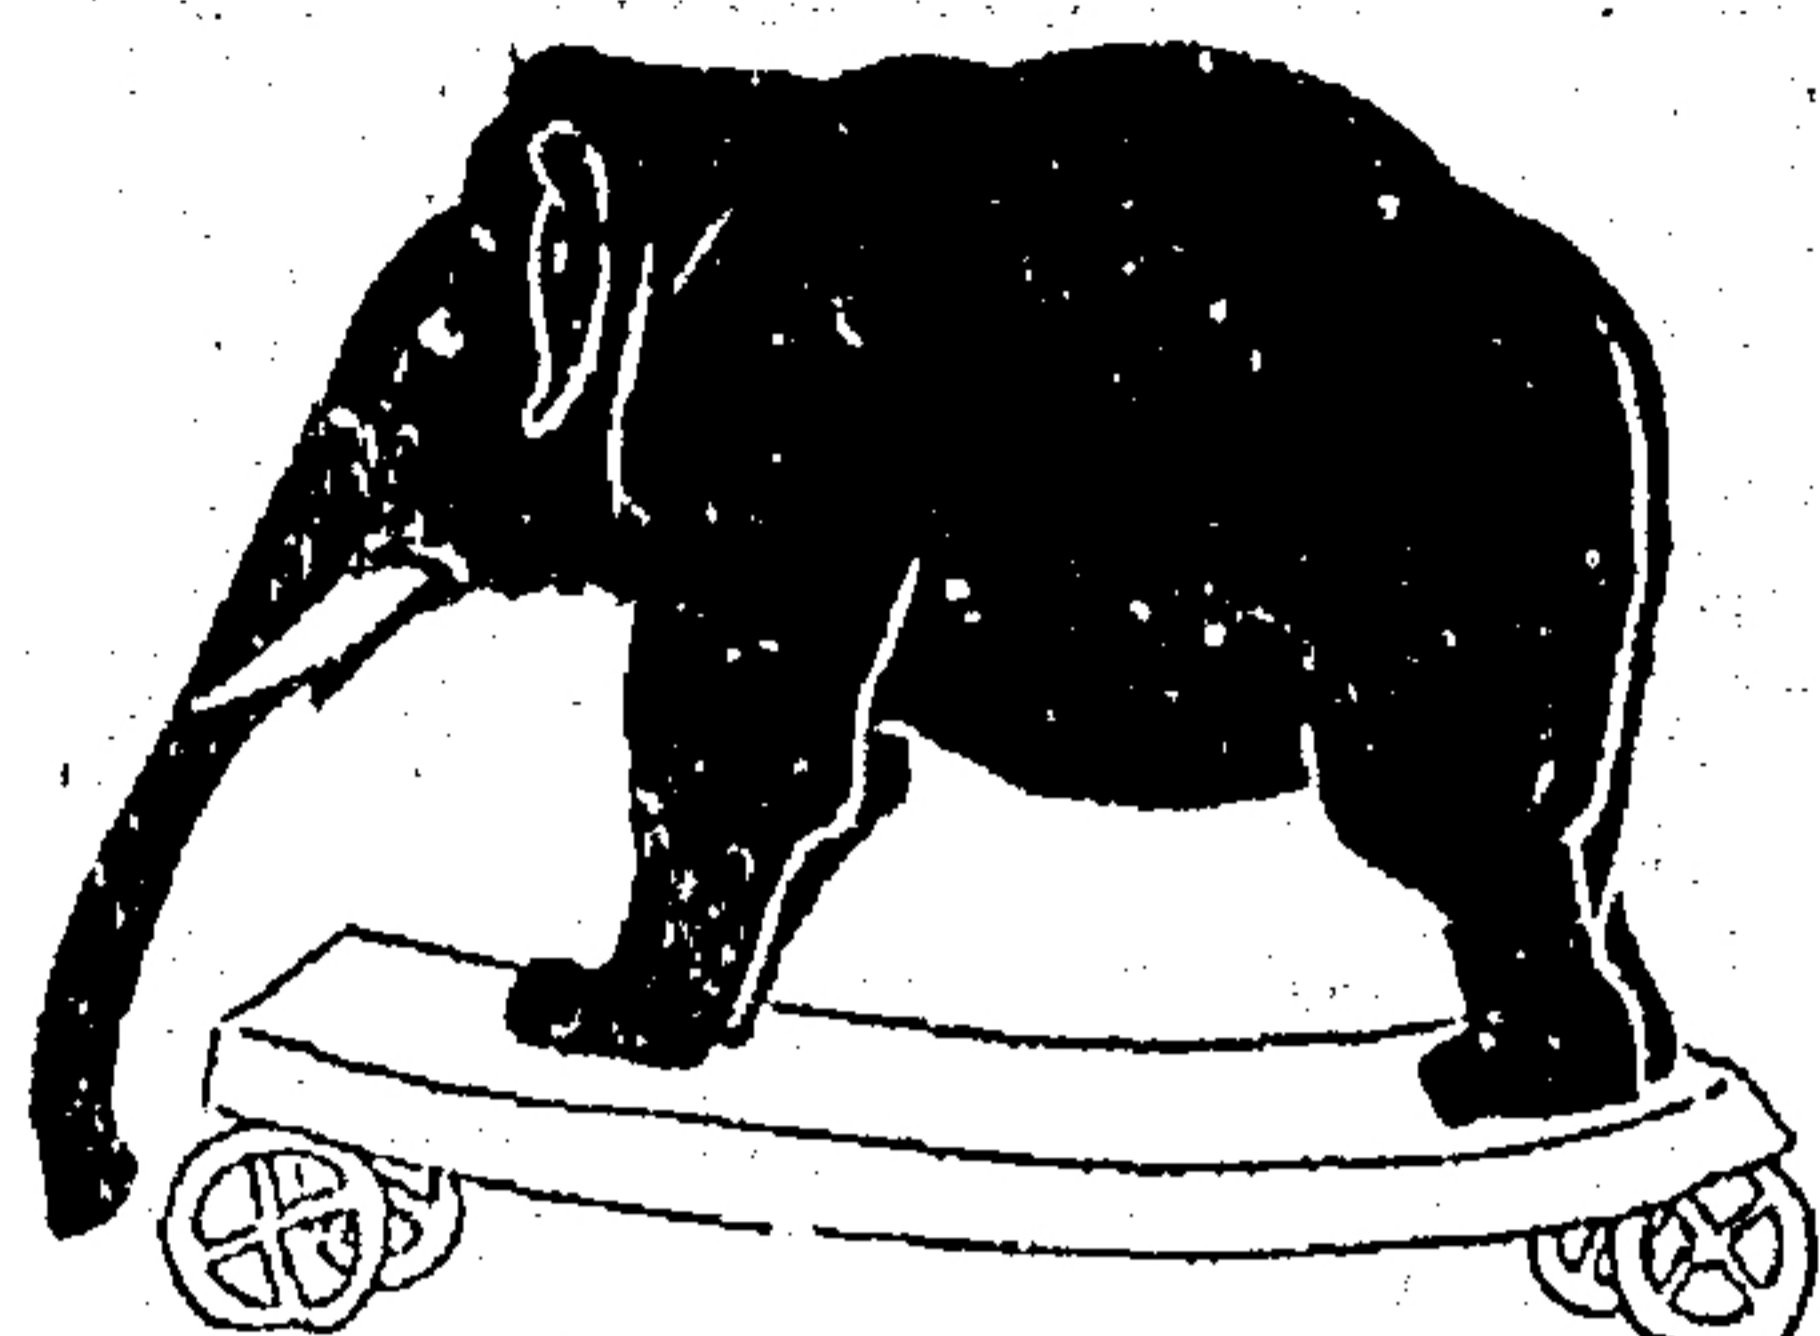

Kaplan

Sarpolis

ELIMINARIES
REDUCED PRICES
$1.50
E J. K. GILL CO.

the jaw with everything he had. Once Concluded on Page 16, Column 4.

Keep the Home Fires Burn- ing . . . by Lev. N. Furnass

POOR OLD TUSKO

THEY brought him up from Salem on a flat trailer. He got cold and got sore. And we don't blame him. . . . Have you an elephant in your basement
. . . a white elephant in the form of an out-of-kelter furnace? Then reach for your phone and call us. We'll be there in a jiffy and your troubles will be over.

TRinity 1249

LEVIN FURNACE COMPANY

East Seventh
and Hancock

If it's your . . .
MOVE